About The Cover

The joy and the tears were evident in the aftermath of FWBC's 75th commencement ceremonies on May 7. Jo Manner, a Christian education major from Hawaii, is on the receiving end of one of the many hugs shared that day.

The Year Verse: 1982-1983

He has showed you, O man, what is good, And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

John Sullivan: Spiritual Heart Surgery

What chances would you give to a young boy who at the age of 11 was a runaway, at the age of 13 was sent to juvenile hall and at the age of 17 took part in a bloody gang war in the heart of Columbus, Ohio? Many of us would hide from such a person let alone try to help him out! But, God can take the lowest of men and make a shining beacon . . . and that is exactly what happened to Fort Wayne Bible College maintenance man John Sullivan!

Growing up in Columbus with loving parents and three high-achieving sisters, John chose a controversial route to spend his time. He decided to find companionship with a group which held on to the philosophy that a corrupt reputation would bring high respect from peers. All through John's teenage years he tried to obtain such a reputation.

Trouble Was No Stranger

By the age of 17 John was an alcoholic and had met with serious trouble when arrested during a violent gang war. Being in court was a routine occurrence for John, but this time the judge issued a stiff penalty. John was given the choice of serving time at the Mansfield Reformatory or to join the military service. John chose the service and spent the next three years in the Army.

After returning from service John married Jane, a girl he had known from childhood. The responsibilities of marriage and raising a family, the Sullivans had three daughters in three years, weighed heavily on John. He did sober up and tried to earn a living as a yard and road conductor for the railroad in Columbus. But, the Sullivans met with tragedy when one of their daughters was killed in an accident at the age of three. John slid back into his "old tricks" and was arrested at least 15 times in one year.

A Life of Chaos

John reflects back on that time.

"Ninety-nine percent of my problem was caused by the influence of alcohol. I was very violent and cruel. I was never home with my family which had grown to include a son. I was either working or serving time in jail for some offense I had committed."

John's life was a life of chaos. He totaled every car he had resulting in several physical damages including a collapsed lung, a dislocated hip and a broken back. John relates one of the many low points in his life.

"When I would become angry I was ready to punch anyone out. In one instance, when my son was with me, I became uncontrollably angry and shotgunned the people around me. No one was killed, but I know to this day my son has disturbing memories of that day."

Life was rough for Jane too. Anxieties kept building as she was faced with a violent, alcoholic husband and with the raising of the children. She knew a change had to take place. Through the invitation of a friend, Jane started attending Wednesday night prayer meetings and it was not too long before she came to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. Jane's whole outlook and approach to life was different. Now her response to John's behavior was still with concern, but also with genuine love.

The Road Back

After 13 years with the railroad, John quit and became involved in sales and finally found an area of work he enjoyed. He sobered up again and became successful in his business career. During this time

Jane started inviting individuals into the Sullivan home for prayer meetings. The group would fervently pray for John and his salvation.

"I didn't want anything to do with God. I would curse Him for my misfortunes. To say the least it didn't take long for me to become fed up with the prayer group . . . but my hard nose attitude didn't seem to discourage them!"

The group refused to give up on John. In fact, one of the ladies asked John if he was ready to receive Christ. Without hesitation John shouted "NO!" But, the lady informed John she would never stop asking him that question until his answer was "yes."

"That lady would ask me that question not only in the privacy of my home, but also in public where sometimes we had quite an audience. She never did give up and finally I did start going to the prayer meetings. I believe it was when for the 37th time she asked me if I was ready to receive Christ that I sincerely answered "yes."

John's affirmative answer started a new life for the Sullivan family. The head of the household was now a part of the family of God!

"God truly did perform a miracle surgery on my heart!"

The success in John's business career brought the Sullivans to Fort Wayne. The outlook seemed to be good, but after only a short period of time the business took a plunge. John was without work. He tried the factory grind, but was not satisfied. Then one day in a local grocery store a woman told John of an opening in the maintenance department at Fort Wayne Bible College. John applied for the job and has been with the college now for over four years!

Since coming to Fort Wayne Bible College the Lord has given John several unique areas of ministry. John and Jane and their son live in the large Wiebke house on the college campus. In two years they have had over 30 people living with them. Some have stayed one month, others for one year. John shares about one of the visitors.

"I think of one special time when a FWBC student had only his student teaching left to do before graduating. The young man was instructed not to work during his student teaching which left him in a real financial bind. The young man felt he would have to withdraw from school since he could not support himself. We heard about the student and invited him to live with us for the semester. He did live with us, finished his student teaching, graduated and is now enrolled in seminary!"

Howard Dunlap: God's Man On The Go

A pastor, an administrator and a true friend are all titles that can be used to describe this issue's featured alumnus. PULSE/LIFELINES' readers have seen his pictures, read his "From the Director" column and have come to associate him with the alumni of Fort Wayne Bible College. Many have come to love and respect him for his radiant testimony and his personal ministry characterized by variety. Our featured alumnus: Rev. Howard Dunlap.

Raised in Van Wert County, Ohio, Howard faithfully attended Zion Christian Union Church and accepted the Lord as his Savior as a young man. Being involved in the church ministry and in a church related singing group, Howard felt the Lord leading him into full-time Christian service.

Fort Wayne Bible Institute

Howard came to Fort Wayne Bible Institute in the fall of 1945. Unlike most students, he did not live in the dorm or eat his meals in the cafeteria or chum around with his best buddies in the evenings. Along with his academic study load Howard also had a family to provide for. As a first semester freshman he and his wife, Ruth, had one daughter, Judy. As a second semester freshman Howard and Ruth became the parents of twins, Jerry and Joyce!

To gain experience and also to bring in an income to properly take care of his growing family, Howard moved the Dunlap family to Craigville, Indiana where he pastored the Craigville Christian Union Church for one year.

"To say the least I was extremely busy. I would memorize my Greek lessons while driving from Craigville to Fort Wayne."

From Craigville the Dunlaps ventured to Williams County, Ohio where Howard pastored the Bethlehem and Mount Union Christian Union Churches for eight years.

"Ruth and I received many blessings as we led Bible studies and tried to meet the needs of the church congregations. We were overjoyed to see young men in our congregations, such as Victor Parson, Robert Chroninger and William Bowles, being lead to full-time ministries during our time of service with them!"

The Family Grows Again

Howard did graduate with a B.A. degree from Fort Wayne Bible College in 1950. Two years later, while still pastoring the Ohio churches, there was another addition to the Dunlap family, Jean Ann.

After eight years of service in Ohio, Howard, Ruth and the four J's moved back to Fort Wayne to pioneer a new Christian Union church. For 17 years they ministered and the Lord blessed the work with over 400 in attendance. While at the church in Fort Wayne a fifth "J" came to the Dunlap home. This time it was James.

Other areas of Christian service Howard has been involved in include being a chaplain and sales person at a recreational vehicle plant in Wakarusa, Indiana, serving as executive secretary for International Child Care and pastoring the North Main Street Mennonite Church of Nappanee, IN.

Return to the College

In 1978 the Dunlaps returned to Fort Wayne. Howard was asked by past Fort Wayne Bible College president, Dr. Timothy Warner, to come back to the Bible College and develop an Alumni/Church Relations Department. Howard accepted the challenge with Ruth joining him in the office as secretary in 1979. It was also in 1979 that Howard began pastoring the First Mennonite Church of Fort Wayne where he is still senior pastor.

Howard's life of service to God has taken him to many places in the world including Japan, Taiwan, Haiti and the Philippines. In March of 1978, as a result of a generous gift from dear friends, Howard and Ruth were able to travel to the Holy Land and visit the islands and countries the Apostle Paul traveled during one of his missionary journeys.

A real highlight for both Howard and Ruth was a recent excursion to London, Glasgow and India. At the request of Teen Missions, Howard was the guest speaker at the Third World Missions Indian Leadership Seminar and Boot Camp. He spoke to 82 Indian young people involved in three building programs.

"I found it a great honor and at the same time an awesome responsibility to speak and counsel with the future leaders of other countries."

In India the Dunlaps developed a new appreciation for America and for all that the Lord has given to them. Howard comments on the trip.

"Ruth and I experienced some of the hardships that many of God's messengers have taken upon themselves. Even though we came face to face with some difficult times during our

The organization's annual fall meeting is scheduled for September 16, 7:30 p.m., in Founders Auditorium. Special guest that evening will be Dr. Dale Ferrier, a dynamic speaker and a highly respected Fort Wayne businessman.

At the meeting, or by mail, one can become a participant in Friends of FWBC by donating $5.00 or more to the Friend Scholarship Fund. The group hopes to receive enough money to give ten $150 scholarships during the academic school year.

Fashion Show Scheduled

A new activity that is in the making is the "Friends of FWBC - Presents an Evening of Fashion." On September 12 in Founders Dining Hall a quality fashion show will be presented with lovely gifts to be given away.

Other activities of fun and purpose one can participate in include the "Crafts-n-Things Sale" on September 30 and October 1 in Brown Gables, the prayer partner ministry, pantry shelf ministry for married students, and the giving of "Survival Kits" to a student(s) which are delivered one week prior to exam week each semester.

And of course, the popular and ever growing "Spring Housewalk" will again be conducted with the date set for April 27, 1984. The last "Spring Housewalk" was a delightful experience. Profits from the "Housewalk", along with the funds earned throughout the school year, enabled Friends of FWBC to present the college a $2,700 check during the Alumni Banquet. The gift was used for new stage curtains and for the upgrading of lighting in Founders Auditorium.

President's Prespective

Many things gladden the heart of the President of Fort Wayne Bible College at commencement time. Chief among those things are the opportunities to interact with our alumni. The evening prior to graduation day is devoted to banquets, programs, and fellowship with FWBC students from other years. It is good to see them and the excitement and vitality they manifest as they interact with hundreds of fellow travelers. There is enthusiasm all over the place — stories from the distant past; testimonies of God's faithfulness and provision; words of current progress by their alma mater; babies in strollers and waves of grey hair; the giving of honors and other kinds of special recognition; singing, prayer, and praise; private parties. In every sense it is a happy time.

And then commencement, a handshake of the President transforms a senior into an alumnus. In a matter of a very few minutes a hundred or so very green alumni come into existence. What a delight it is to project in one's imagination the possible life and ministry of these marvelous young people with all the joys and victories. As all our alumni have done, these will do their part in changing the world.

And then in a few short weeks a new group — the freshman class — begins to assemble, coming from a wide variety of backgrounds, led of the Lord for an education here before entering a unique pattern of service for the Lord.

Third Largest Class in FWBC History Graduates

Overcast skies and a packed Founders Hall auditorium greeted the 92 members of the Class of 1983 during Fort Wayne Bible College's seventy-fifth commencement exercises, May 7.

The president of Nyack College, Dr. David Rambo, delivered the commencement address, urging the graduates to anchor themselves in the Scriptures as they go forth into the world. Using the theme of "Hasten Unto God, Hasten in His World," Dr. Rambo said that never before in history has so much negative news been generated throughout the world. He challenged the graduates to arm themselves with the Word to beat back these negative forces that are threatening the fabric of our civilization.

Graduating with honors during the ceremonies were Anne Earle, cum laude;

Dr. David Rambo delivering the commencement address.

Elizabeth Louks, summa cum laude; Gregg Luginbill, cum laude; Vicki Vincent, cum laude; Julie Waggoner, magna cum laude; Curt Alexander, summa cum laude; Dan Coffey, cum laude; Diana Cummins, cum laude; Jacqueline Huggins, cum laude; Leroy Lawson, summa cum laude; Rod Schuler, cum laude; Craig Vincent, summa cum laude; Doug Hayes, summa cum laude; and Dennis Kesler, magna cum laude.

The Prison Ministry

John has also become actively involved in Chuck Colson's Prison Fellowship.

"Taking part in Prison Fellowship never entered my mind. When someone suggested the ministry to me I flatly refused. I reasoned that I had spent enough time behind steel bars!"

John's reasoning fell to pieces when he was invited to go along to a prison in Terre Haute to see what all was involved in the ministry.

"The Christian inmates ministered to me that day! There was a real love present. It had such an impact on me that I have been going back ever since!"

Not only has John been ministering in the prisons of Indiana, but he has also traveled to Michigan and Kentucky. Recently he had the opportunity to travel to the Kentucky State Penitentiary and share eternal hope with the men on "Death Row."

"It is a true blessing to lead inmates to Christ, but the greatest thrill is to see inmates share the Gospel and direct other inmates to the Lord. Now that is the greatest!"

Super things are happening for John Sullivan! His ministry is growing and he is also currently writing a book entitled "Dealing With Fear" which gives attention to what fear is and how to cope with it. John hopes to have the book published soon and into as many prisons as possible.

Now, what chances did you say you would give to a troubled young boy who seemed destined to eternal hell? Maybe your answer has changed since reading of John Sullivan's story. Whatever your answer, it is clear that our God is the Great Physician . . . the Miracle Worker of spiritual heart surgery!

Shu Do and Mary Lee Tung ('24) on their wedding day. The Ramseys are on the far left.

In PULSE/LIFELINES — Winter 1982-83, Dr. Bostrom made mention of the many contacts that he has had with the alumni of FWBC. One contact listed was with Mrs. Mary Lee Tung who resides in Mainland, China.

Mr. Harold Browett of Belmont, Ontario, a 1925 graduate of FWBC, read Dr. Bostrom's column and on seeing Mrs. Tung's name a wealth of memories came to mind. The following letter to Dr. Bostrom resulted.

Dear Dr. Bostrom:

In "Pulse-Lifelines" of 1982-83, in the "President's Perspective" on page 6, there appears a reference to one "Mrs. Mary Lee Tung."

I am enclosing herewith pictures of her taken at her marriage.

It all came about on this wise: In those three summers I went to work in the engineering dept. of the (then) Western Gas Construction Co., Ft. Wayne, as a draftsman. Among the 50 (or so) draftsmen was Shu Do Tung. We were the "off-scourings" because I was a Christian and Shu was a Chinese. We were soon "hanging together."

We used to get breakfast together at "Krill's" restaurant on the way to work every morning.

He knew that Mary Lee was living at the Bible School building (the only building on campus then).

One day Shu said, "Do you know Mary Lee?"

I said, "Yes, I do."

Dialog along these lines went on for some days, until he asked, "Would you introduce me to Mary Lee?"

I held him off for as long as I could. He stood that for a while, then one day he asked, "Why won't you?"

I had to say, as carefully as I could, "Shu, Mary Lee is a Christian. She is not just (and only) a church person, but she is a 'born again' person, she knows Jesus Christ as her personal Savior."

He considered that for awhile, then said, "I like that."

I said, "She may never become interested in anyone who is outside of Jesus Christ."

Shu considered that for awhile and a little later on he still asked, "Will you get me the introduction?"

It seemed to be getting to be a difficult situation if I was going to avoid hurting him.

I then said that I would speak to Mr. J. E. Ramseyer, the President at the school. Shu said, "That is good."

Back at the building after work that day, I did speak to Mr. Ramseyer. He had a hearty laugh. (He did enjoy young people and all that they attempted to do).

After finding out all I knew of Shu, he said, "Leave it with me and I will speak to Mary Lee tomorrow."

Next morning Shu was anxious to know whether any progress was made. That evening Mr. Ramseyer told me that Mary Lee was agreeable to have the introduction.

The next morning I told it to Shu. That made Shu very happy.

After work that day Shu went to his lodging place and then came out to the school at about 7:30. We had arranged for him to ask for me, as he was unknown there to anyone else. When Shu appeared he was all "brand new." He was bright, polished, and shining. He had thrown a lot into his campaign.

"A Story Worth Retelling"

The attendant called me. I met Shu and we went into the reception room. I asked the attendant to get Mr. Ramseyer.

I introduced Shu to Mr. Ramseyer. Mr. Ramseyer was a great judge of character. He liked to see people set out to do something and really put the best they had into the campaign.

He talked to Shu for awhile. I retreated to the doorway.

Soon Mr. Ramseyer came by, all smiles, and whispered that he was going to fetch Mary Lee.

When Mary Lee came along she was as pretty as a picture. She was one of the loveliest girls at the school.

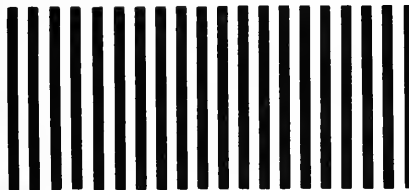

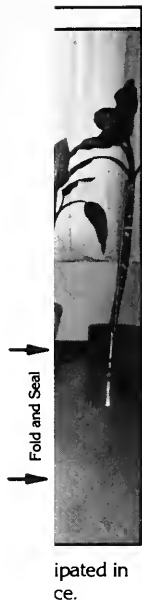

Mr. Ramseyer introduced Shu to Mary Lee. In some mysterious way with time, it all progressed until these pictures were produced. The group shows Mr. J. E. Ramseyer with Mrs. Ramseyer just in back of him. I was not at the wedding, as I had a church in Monroe, Michigan, that year. But since that introduction 59 years ago our acquaintances have "clicked" off. I never knew where the couple went until word appeared in your column. I have only the happiest memories of my association, over the drafting boards, of Shu Do Tung.

The Lord's richest Blessing to you.

FWBC alumni were present!

Alumni festivities took place throughout the afternoon and evening. The class of 1933 had lunch together in the President's Dining Room and shared experiences and laughed over the practical jokes of 50 years ago.

The class of 1943 joined together and shared information and activities of classmates. Each member of the class received a copy of a tape which was made 40 years ago just before the class's graduation. The tape was used on the "Worship Hour" radio program in 1943 and contained student testimonies of the class, sharing what they would do upon college graduation. The tape was a great source of fond memories.

... all of the alumni had to greet one another during the Fellowship Hour, followed by a catered meal in Founders Cafeteria and the Fellowship Hall of First Missionary Church. The alumni then joined together in Founders Auditorium for a program which included a performance by the FWBC Concert Band under the direction of Professor Dana Collins, and a college update by Dr. Bostrom.

Outstanding Senior Awards

During the evening six students of the 1983 graduating class were recognized as recipients of the "Outstanding Senior Award." The recipients were David Gould, Jacqueline Huggins and Jeffrey Pepple all of Fort Wayne; Karla Traxler of Edgerton, OH; Eldon Krider of Markle, IN; and Josephine Manner of Nanakuli, HI.

Shu Do and Mary Lee Tung ('24) on their wedding day. The Rams

In PULSE/LIFELINES — Winter 1982-83, Dr. Bostrom made mention of the many contacts that he has had with the alumni of FWBC. One contact listed was with Mrs. Mary Lee Tung who resides in Mainland, China.

Mr. Harold Browett of Belmont, Ontario, a 1925 graduate of FWBC, read Dr. Bostrom's column and on seeing Mrs. Tung's name a wealth of memories came to mind. The following letter to Dr. Bostrom resulted.

Dear Dr. Bostrom:

In "Pulse-Lifelines" of 1982-83, in the "President's Perspective" on page 6, there appears a reference to one "Mrs. Mary Lee Tung."

I am enclosing herewith pictures of her taken at her marriage.

It all came about on this wise: In those three summers I went to work in the engineering dept. of the (then) Western Gas Construction Co., Ft. Wayne, as a draftsman. Among the 50 (or so) draftsmen was Shu Do Tung. We were the "off-scourings" because I was a Christian and Shu was a Chinese. We were soon "hanging together."

We used to get breakfast together at "Krill's" restaurant on the way to work every morning.

He knew that Mary Lee was living at the Bible School building (the only building on campus then).

One day Shu said, "Do you know Mary Lee?"

I said, "Yes, I do."

Dialog along these lines went on for some days, until he asked, "Would you introduce me to Mary Lee?"

I held him off for as long as I could. He stood that for a while, then one day he asked, "Why won't you?"

I had to say, as carefully as I could, "Shu, Mary Lee is a Christian. She is not just (and only) a church person, but she is a 'born again' person, she knows Jesus Christ as her personal Savior."

He considered that for awhile, then said, "I like that."

I said, "She may never become interested in anyone who is outside of Jesus Christ."

Shu continued later on he introduced me.

It seems in that situation if

I then said, "Thank you, Ramseyer."

Back at the time I did speak and laugh. (He said that they are

After finally said, "Learn

Mary Lee told me

Next morning Shu was asked whether any progress was made. That evening Mr. Ramseyer told me that Mary Lee was agreeable to have the introduction.

The next morning I told it to Shu. That made Shu very happy.

After work that day Shu went to his lodging place and then came out to the school at about 7:30. We had arranged for him since that introduction 59 years ago our acquaintances have "clicked" off. I never knew where the couple went until word appeared in your column. I have only the happiest memories of my association, over the drafting boards, of Shu Do Tung.

Outstanding Attendance at Alumni Banquet

Friday, May 6, was a beautiful day at Fort Wayne Bible College. Radio station WBCL announced several times that the day of broadcasting was being underwritten by the Alumni Association of Fort Wayne Bible College. What was the big occasion? The Annual Alumni Banquet at which over 525 FWBC alumni were present!

Alumni festivities took place throughout the afternoon and evening. The class of 1933 had lunch together in the President's Dining Room and shared experiences and laughed over the practical jokes of 50 years ago.

The tape was a great source of fond memories.

At 5:00 p.m., during the Fellowship Hour, the classes of 1948, 1958 and 1973 gathered in various rooms on campus. Again, memories of those 'ole college days were shared.

Following tradition, all of the alumni had a chance to greet one another during the Fellowship Hour, followed by a catered meal in Founders Cafeteria and the Fellowship Hall of First Missionary Church. The alumni then joined together in Founders Auditorium for a program which included a performance by the FWBC Concert Band under the direction of Professor Dana Collins, and a college update by Dr. Bostrom.

From the Director

Howard Dunlap

Dear Alumni,

Days come and go and they soon become weeks and months. It seems like only yesterday we were planning for the Annual Alumni Banquet and now it is history! The 1983 Banquet and program were fantastic and we are sorry if you were not able to attend. Please mark your calendar, in fact mark all your calendars, for next year's banquet scheduled for May 11, 1984!

Being at Fort Wayne Bible College I have been blessed in so many ways. Chapel programs are inspiring, Special Events have been fulfilling, athletic contests have been rewarding and alumni meetings and reunions have been refreshing! The many activities keep me plenty busy, but the blessings make it all worthwhile.

You are important to Fort Wayne Bible College! Your letters of appreciation, information and correction are a real source of encouragement. Please continue to write us. Send us names and addresses of young people you know who the Lord could lead to Fort Wayne Bible College. Help us plant and cultivate the seed of spiritual growth in lives of young people.

As I think of the success of PHON-A-THON and your faithfulness in giving, just a "thank-you" seems so inadequate to show our appreciation. I have come to a new depth of gratitude for your gifts. During my recent trip to India I came into contact with individuals who had nothing . . . it was a very humbling experience.

Thank you again for your cooperation. I invite you to visit us and sense what God is doing at Fort Wayne Bible College. May God's peace be with you!

Phon-A-Thon '83

More than 1500 alumni homes throughout the United States were contacted during PHON-A-THON '83 as alumni volunteers and campus staff members manned the telephones in the year-end fund raising drive sponsored by the Fort Wayne Bible College Alumni Association.

The six evenings of calling, May 16, 17, 19, 23, 24 and 26, achieved and exceeded the $25,000 goal. As of this writing over $33,000 has been pledged by Fort Wayne Bible College alumni! The funds will be used to help balance the college budget for the 1982-83 fiscal year and to provide for Alumni Scholarships in the spring of 1984.

The atmosphere during PHON-A-THON '83 was thrilling according to Alumni Director, Howard Dunlap:

"The Lord showed Himself mighty as volunteers faithfully brought food, enthusiastically assumed responsibilities and perseveringly telephoned alumni across the nation. It was a beautiful and exciting experience. Surpassing our goal by several thousands of dollars was a miracle of God!"

Some 48 volunteers donated their time to assist in many ways during PHON-A-THON '83 with never a dull moment as they made calls, stuffed envelopes, helped with the tabulation and prayed for the special requests that were received.

Adelle Issac ('39) raised the most funds during PHON-A-THON '83. Dedicating many hours of time, and having fun doing it, Adelle obtained over $3,700 in pledges!

Who Will Be At The Top?

Which Fort Wayne Bible College graduating class will be the highest giving class for PHON-A-THON '83? Below is listed the classes with the highest giving per member in the 1982 PHON-A-THON. Remember to send your gift if you have not done so already!

Lifestyle Giving

A friend advises that we should . . .
Do our giving while we're living,
Then we'll be knowing where it's going,
So we won't be crying when we're dying.
and for many people, there is wisdom in that advice.

Naturally, as faithful stewards, we are attempting to do everything we can to share the Gospel with a lost, hurting and dying world during our lifetimes.

We give a percentage of our income to be used as efficiently as possible to bear fruit. But some of us can do more.

In our tax laws, Congress has provided a way to transfer property to a charitable organization during your lifetime, but maintain the right to receive the benefits of that property for as long as you live. Whether it be the income from stocks, bonds, mutual funds, savings accounts; or whether it be the right to live in your home for the rest of your life . . . even maintaining these rights, we still can take a charitable deduction at the time we make the transfer.

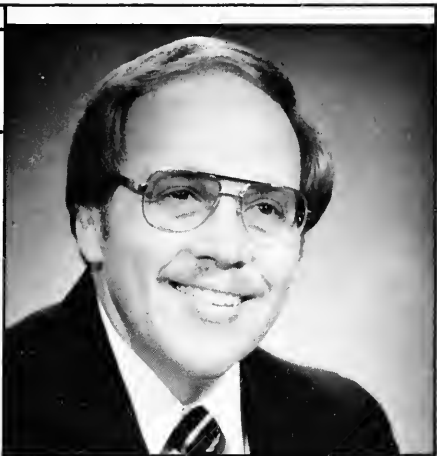

Naturally, this charitable deduction is reduced by the value of the rights we retain. But many times it is substantial, and saves a significant amount of income taxes.

Also, when that property has increased in value, the capital gain tax that would be payable, had we sold the property, will be partially or totally avoided, even though the property is subsequently sold and reinvested in property producing a higher income.

Income for Life

It might also be possible that your income will be guaranteed for life, and a portion of your transfer will be available to the charitable organization during your lifetime, to be utilized to carry out our ministry.

To me this is exciting, to realize that property which God has entrusted to me can be used to provide for my financial security, and He can also use it to take His Gospel into all the world.

Keith Vincent
V.P. for Development and Public Relations

If you have accumulated property and would like for it to be productive for the Lord's work, but still need the income from that property, I invite you to let us share with you how you can meet both of these objectives.

Gift Annuities

Another source of wise investing available to us is through the gift annuity. Just recently I attended the National Conference for the Committee of Gift Annuities. It was encouraging to join with over 1000 charities meeting together to establish new annual rates of return and share information in the charitable gift realm. The conference took action to increase their annuity rates substantially from rates established in 1977.

If you would like a copy of the new rates or more information on gift annuities please contact our office. You may also indicate on the enclosed envelope that you would like further information sent to you.

Our services are free of charge. We want to help you be the steward that we know you want to be in God's sight.

Write our office or give us a call and let us help.

"Not that I desire a gift, but that I desire fruit that will abound to your account." Philippians 4:17
